

Style Tip:
Add a 3-D element to your invite whenever possible. Fabric, embellishment, or a box makes it memorable!

stylist to the stars Anya Sarre reports on Hollywood's hottest wedding trends

Event and photograph by Neil Leeson Décor Floral, neilleeson.com.

Style Tip:
Make sure you have a main color, accent color, and a metallic for a super-chic color palette.

DÉCOR

Take a note from Carrie Underwood and have a fairy-tale wedding with enough bling to go around. All you need is a little blush pink and a lot of sparkle to ensure that your big day shines with over-the-top Southern charm.

Favor box by Party City, $1.43 each; partycity.com.

Style Tip:
Cupcake wedding cakes aren't just for celebrities! Give your guests little take-away boxes for the extra cupcakes in your wedding colors, and you have an instant fun favor!

Cake by Magnolia Bakery, $250-350; magnoliabakery.com.

Frame by Z Gallerie, $42.95; zgallerie.com.

Style Tip:
A bouquet with bling and sparkle is fabulous, but it counts as one of your accessories. Make it complement your jewels for a styled look!

Cuff by Dena Kemp, $51,500; nemanmarcus.com.

Silver bow shoes by Jimmy Choo, $895; Saks Fifth Avenue Beverly Hills; 310.275.4211.

Anya's Advice: Do what the stars do and photograph your look! Dress head-to-toe in your full wedding look a week before your wedding and have one of your bridesmaids take a picture of you. Photos don't lie so you'll be able to tweak your style, add or take away accessories, and ensure a perfect vision on your wedding day.

Strapless cocktail dress by Romona Keveza, $2,245; romonakeveza.com.

Perfume by Michael Kors, $85; michaelkors.com.

Style Tip: Don't wait until the morning of your wedding to try on your shoes. Wear them at least two times before your wedding day to ensure your feet have as much fun as you do.
